Attendance Report

22 of our members were absent last week; 5 make-ups listed.

Only one in-person make-up was reported: Catherine Rickbone, but the location was not listed. Four make-ups were given for guests: Rob Thompson (2), Anji Mitchell & David Huntington (1 each).

Regular attendance is required for you to continue your Rotary membership.

Incentive Drawings

Rob Thompson won the $5 membership incentive drawing so this week's drawing will again be worth $5.

The '50-50' drawing was worth $101 and lucky Anji Mitchell nailed it by drawing an ace.

This week's "pot" starts at how ever much much we make on today's ticket sales.

You can't win without a ticket!

September Students Speak, Receive Plaques

Our students of the month for September each gave his or her '5-minute' talk last week.

Madelyn Baker told us that her transition from home schooling to public schools has gone well and she recognizes increased opportunities.

She especially thanked Mary Koike and her own father for the support and help they provided during this period of change.

Madelyn is the NHS student body president and plans a career in public relations.

Next, Austin Thompson (student body vice president) told us of his love of, and involvement in, swimming.

He hopes to swim for either

Madelyn Baker and Austin Thompson received plaques from club president Julie Hanrahan.

Linfield College or Pacific University while he earns a degree related to pharmacy.

We Bid 'Farewell' to the Agate Beach Inn

After a few years, we have moved our weekly meetings to Embracadero, effective with today's meeting.

We thanked the Inn's General Manager, Judy Kuhl (left) and Director of Catering Tami O'Connor (center) at last week's meeting, along with our service staff (at left) for their years of helping us enjoy our weekly meetings.
