There were 20 members absent and six make-ups reported last week.

In person make-ups included Kathryn Heater and Doug Hunt at the Lincoln City club and members with guests included Catherine Rickbone, Michael Smith and Rob Thompson (x2).

Incentive Drawings

Signe Grimstad won the $5 membership incentive drawing so his week's drawing will also be worth $5.

The '50-50' drawing was worth $51 and Spencer Nebel missed it by drawing a queen. This week's pot starts at $51 plus how much we make on today's ticket sales.

September 18 Program Extols Virtues of Yoga

Last week's program was presented by Holly Romero of Little Fish Yoga in Newport

She enlisted the aid of Howard Adams and Mark Miranda, who played the role of undergoing a "fitness assessment".

Holly explained what was involved in making that assessment as they went through the routines. Yoga is a Hindu spiritual and ascetic discipline, widely practiced for health and relaxation.

Holly and Howard went through the yoga routine...

...while Mark played a rousing game of "This little piggy went to market..."

Here's Your Chance to Share Rotary!

Our first quarterly Rotary Membership Event will be Monday (Sept. 29) at Embarcadero.

This will be a chance for you to invite prospective members (who qualify for membership) to a fun, social meeting that explains more about Rotary; members who attend will earn a make-up.

Please let Julia Carlson know if you will attend and, if so, how many guests you will bring so we have a head count. Her email address is: julia.carlson@lpl.com

Arrival and happy hour is 4:30 to 5:00; "Rotary Basics" will be from 5:00 to 6:00.

Don't miss this chance to introduce others to the benefits of being a Rotarian.

Words of Wisdom

"We are all born ignorant, but one must work hard to remain stupid."

— Benjamin Franklin

- Don't forget: next week our meeting makes the move to Embarcadero. Tell any fellow Rotarian you see of this change of meeting location.
