Drs. Lee Vogelman & Yen Nguyen

Physician husband and wife team Lee Vogelman and Yen Nguyen presented information and a slide presentation on their recent trip to Nepal where they provided aid and assisted victims of the devastating earthquake. They joined a small aid group upon arrival in Nepal with multiple bins of supplies donated by Samaritan Health Services. While there, they also saw the need for shoes and they were able to provide many with shoes, as well as toothbrushes and medicine. They visited 7 villages which had approximately 300-400 people in each village. Dr. Vogelman said the Nepalese people were humble and peaceful and they felt safe in this region.

Welcome our Newest Member:

Diane Nelson

President Ted Smith had the honor of inducting our newest member, Diane Nelson, into our club membership last week. Diane took a brief moment to let us know she is looking forward to being a member of our club, as she has been involved with Rotary over the last 5 years through her husband, Keith. She says she has been busy obtaining her PhD and teaching to be too involved but now welcomes the opportunity to do so and is excited to be an active member in our group. Welcome to the Club, Diane!

In case you missed it..

NEW VOCABULARY WORD: COMMUNITARD

According to Urban Dictionary, a Communitard is a skin-tight one-piece social garment worn by Communitarian thinkers and focuses the need to balance individual rights and interests with that of the community as a whole. It differs from a leotard in that it is particularly restrictive in areas of individual rights and independent thinking. It should not be confused with a wrestling singlet. It has been noted for its comfortably fit; the wearer might not be aware that they are wearing one.

Thank you, Jeff, for the education and the joy~
