September Student of the Month

President Ted Smith with Student of the Month Dakota Lager

Dakota Lager is the son of Scott and Lalori Lager. Dakota was born in Newport and is a senior at Newport High School where he maintains a 3.89 gpa. He is the student body president and is currently enrolled in multiple IB and community college classes. Dakota is a swimmer for the Cubs, but his true passion seems to be 4-H. He has been honored with Senior Swine Showman 4-H and is a Coos County 4-H Ambassador. Dakota has organized several fundraisers and community service projects at Newport High School and volunteered at several different 4-H county events. His future plan is to attend Oregon State University concentrating in studies in agriculture education and youth development.

Hanna Connette, Executive Director of Family Promise of Lincoln County
 Family Promise of Lincoln County is a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide shelter, meals and assistance to homeless and low-income families with children in Lincoln County, while they seek to achieve sustainable independent living. This is achieved through a collaborative community effort based upon a national model which has proven to be successful. Partnerships with local churches and social service agencies help Family Promise provide practical and effective services. There are multiple levels of how the community can sponsor a child and help in the program. You can get more information at <http://familypromiseoflincolncounty.org/>

DRIVERS NEEDED!!

GLADYS: Our honorary member, Gladys, needs transportation to and from the weekly meetings. Please contact Ted Smith on how you can help.

EXCHANGE STUDENT TRANSPORTATION: Franka is required to attend a number of events throughout the District during her stay in Newport and transportation to various locations is often needed. Although our host families are extremely generous to welcome her in their home, they need our help with transportation. Please contact Rob Thompson to see how you can help!!
